Ontario Premier Dalton McGuinty released the following statement regarding the recent terror attacks in Lahore, Pakistan:

“Like all Ontarians, I was saddened to learn of the recent terror attacks in Lahore, Pakistan.

On behalf of all Ontarians, our thoughts and prayers go out to the victims, their loved ones and all those still concerned about the safety of friends and relatives.

When I led Ontario’s trade mission to Pakistan in 2007, I remember the warmth, friendliness and hospitality of the people we met.

At times like this, we are all reminded of the strong links between Ontario and Pakistan. We feel the pain of this attack intimately, because we have a large Ahmadiyya community, made up of compassionate people who are raising families, supporting worthy causes and helping to build a stronger province.”
